Case No. : 5:20-cv-487

COMPLAINT - CLASS ACTION FOR DAMAGES PURSUANT TO
47 U.S.C. § 227, et seq.
(TELEPHONE CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT)

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff PT Metals, LLC, (“PT Metals” or “Plaintiff”) brings this Class Action Complaint and Demand for Jury Trial (“Complaint”) against Defendant B2B Industrial Products LLC (“B2B Industrial” or “Defendant”) to: (1) stop Defendant’s practice of sending unauthorized and unwanted fax advertisements; and (2) obtain redress for all persons and entities injured by its conduct. Plaintiff, for its Complaint, alleges as follows upon personal knowledge as to itself and its own acts and experiences, and, as to all other matters, upon information and belief, including investigation conducted by its attorneys.

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. B2B Industrial is a national company that sells and services industrial packaging equipment and supplies.
2. In an attempt to generate sales leads, and ultimately increase its revenues, B2B Industrial created a fax-based marketing campaign wherein it sent numerous unsolicited faxes advertising its products and services across the country.

3. B2B Industrial sent the fax advertisements at issue to Plaintiff and members of the Classes (defined below) despite: (i) having no previous relationship with them; and (ii) never receiving the recipients' consent to receive such faxes.

4. The Federal Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, as amended by the Junk Fax Prevention Act of 2005, 47 U.S.C. § 227 ("JFPA" or the "Act"), and the regulations promulgated under the Act, prohibits a person or entity from faxing, or having an agent fax, advertisements without the recipient's prior express consent, invitation, and permission. The JFPA provides a private right of action and provides statutory damages of $500 per violation, which, to the extent Defendant's misconduct is determined to be willful, the Court may treble under 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).

5. The JFPA further requires that senders of faxed advertisements place a clear and conspicuous notice on the first page of the transmission that contains information regarding a recipient's right to not receive faxed advertisements, instructions on how to opt out of future transmissions, and informing recipients of the sender's obligation to comply with opt-out requests within a reasonable time. See 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(2)(D); 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(a)(4)(iii). The JFPA provides a private right of action and provides statutory damages of $500 per violation, which, to the extent Defendant's misconduct is determined to be willful, the Court may treble under 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3).

6. As such, Defendant's fax advertisements violate the JFPA, and caused Plaintiff and members of the Classes to suffer actual harm, including the aggravation and nuisance of receiving such faxes, the loss of use of their fax machines during the receipt of such faxes, increased labor expenses, and the loss of any ink and paper used to print them.

7. Accordingly, Plaintiff seeks an injunction requiring Defendant to cease all unauthorized fax-based marketing activities, as well as an award of actual and statutory damages to the members of the Classes, along with costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

PARTIES

8. Plaintiff PT Metals is a limited liability company organized and existing under the laws of the State of Ohio with its headquarters in Stark County, Ohio. PT Metals is the successor in interest to Navarre Industries, Inc. ("Navarre Industries").<sup>1</sup>

9. Defendant B2B Industrial is a limited liability company incorporated and existing under the laws of the State of Illinois. B2B Industrial maintains its principal office at 313 South Rohlwing Road, Addison, Illinois 60101. B2B Industrial systemically and continuously conducts business throughout this District, the State of Ohio, and the United States. B2B Industrial can be served through its registered agent, Patrick C. Keeley, located at 122 South County Farm Road, Suite C, Wheaton, Illinois 60187.

JURISDICTION & VENUE

10. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, as the action arises under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227, a federal statute.

11. The Court has personal jurisdiction over B2B Industrial and venue is proper in this District because the wrongful conduct giving rise to Plaintiff's cause of action occurred in, or was directed to, this District. Additionally, venue is proper in this District because Plaintiff resides in this District.

<sup>1</sup> Discovery will likely reveal that Defendant sent Navarre Industries additional violative faxes during the class period. PT Metals has acquired the rights to recover on any such additional faxes.

12. B2B Industrial further availed itself to the jurisdiction of the State of Ohio by transmitting the unauthorized fax advertisements to Plaintiff and Class Members in this District, directing its marketing efforts toward this District, soliciting customers in this District, and entering into business contracts in this District. See Advanced Dermatology v. Adv-Care Pharmacy, Inc., Case No. 1:17cv251, 2017 WL 5067576 (N.D. Ohio, Oct. 31, 2017) (Nugent, J.).

COMMON ALLEGATIONS OF FACT

13. B2B Industrial sells and services industrial packaging equipment and supplies.

14. In order to boost sales and increase its revenues, B2B Industrial sends numerous faxes advertising packaging equipment and ice-melt supplies.

15. B2B Industrial sends these fax advertisements to individuals and businesses with which it has no prior relationship, and without their permission or consent, in violation of the JFPA.

16. The faxes sent by B2B Industrial constitute advertisements because they promote the commercial availability and quality of packaging equipment and ice-melt supplies available for purchase from B2B Industrial.

17. The faxes sent by B2B Industrial did not have a clear and conspicuous notice on the first page of the transmission that contains information regarding a recipient's right to not receive faxed advertisements and informing recipients of the sender's obligation to comply with opt-out requests within a reasonable time.

18. B2B Industrial used a telephone facsimile machine, computer or other device to send the fax advertisements at issue.

FACTS SPECIFIC TO PLAINTIFF PT METALS

19. On or around November 8, 2019, B2B Industrial used a telephone facsimile machine to send an unsolicited fax advertisement to Plaintiff. (A true and accurate copy of the November 8, 2019 fax advertisement is attached hereto as Exhibit A).

20. On or around November 22, 2019, B2B Industrial used a telephone facsimile machine to send an unsolicited fax advertisement to Plaintiff. (A true and accurate copy of the November 22, 2019 fax advertisement is attached hereto as Exhibit B).

21. On or around December 6, 2019, B2B Industrial used a telephone facsimile machine to send an unsolicited fax advertisement to Plaintiff. (A true and accurate copy of the December 6, 2019 fax advertisement is attached hereto as Exhibit C).

22. On or around January 10, 2020, B2B Industrial used a telephone facsimile machine to send an unsolicited fax advertisement to Plaintiff. (A true and accurate copy of the January 10, 2020 fax advertisement is attached hereto as Exhibit D).

23. On or around January 24, 2020, B2B Industrial used a telephone facsimile machine to send an unsolicited fax advertisement to Plaintiff. (A true and accurate copy of the January 24, 2020 fax advertisement is attached hereto as Exhibit E).

24. On or around January 30, 2020, B2B Industrial used a telephone facsimile machine to send an unsolicited fax advertisement to Plaintiff. (A true and accurate copy of the January 30, 2020 fax advertisement is attached hereto as Exhibit F).

25. On or around February 6, 2020, B2B Industrial used a telephone facsimile machine to send an unsolicited fax advertisement to Plaintiff. (A true and accurate copy of the February 6, 2020 fax advertisement is attached hereto as Exhibit G).

26. Defendant's faxes promoted the sale of packaging equipment and ice-melt supplies. (See Exs. A-G.)

27. Plaintiff had no prior business relationship with B2B Industrial and had never provided it with consent to receive advertisements through any medium, let alone facsimiles.

28. B2B Industrial created the content of the fax advertisements and transmitted them to Plaintiff and members of the Classes with the intention of generating sales and increasing its revenues.

29. Defendant's faxes all displayed an identical toll-free number, 800-413-2463 and several also provided a link to Defendant's website, <http://www.b2bind.com/>.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

30. Plaintiff brings this action pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23(b)(2) and 23(b)(3) individually and on behalf of the classes defined as follows:

No Consent Class: All persons and entities who (i) in the four years preceding the filing of this action, (ii) received a telephone facsimile advertisement, (iii) sent by, or on behalf of, B2B Industrial, (iv) for whom B2B Industrial did not have a record of prior express consent to send the facsimile advertisements at the time they were sent.

Opt-Out Class: All persons and entities who (i) in the four years preceding the filing of this action, (ii) received an unsolicited telephone facsimile advertisement, (iii) sent by, or on behalf of, B2B Industrial, (iv) for whom B2B Industrial did not have a record of prior express consent to send the facsimile advertisements at the time they were sent, (v) where such facsimile advertisement failed to contain the required opt-out notice.

31. The following people are excluded from the Classes: (1) any Judge or Magistrate presiding over this action and members of their families; (2) Defendant, Defendant's subsidiaries, parents, successors, predecessors, and any entity in which Defendant or its parents have a controlling interest and its current or former employees, officers and directors; (3) persons who properly execute and file a timely request for exclusion from the Classes; (4) persons whose claims in this matter have been finally adjudicated on the merits or otherwise released; (5)

Plaintiff's counsel and Defendant's counsel; and (6) the legal representatives, successors, and assigns of any such excluded persons.

32. Numerosity: The exact size of the Classes is unknown and unavailable to Plaintiff at this time, but it is clear that individual joinder is impracticable. On information and belief, B2B Industrial faxed unsolicited advertisements to thousands of individuals and entities who fall into the definition of the Classes. Class membership can be easily determined from Defendant's records.

33. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the other members of the Classes. Plaintiff is a member of the Classes, and if B2B Industrial violated the JFPA with respect to Plaintiff, then it violated the JFPA with respect to the other members of the Classes. Plaintiff and members of the Classes sustained damages as a result of Defendant's uniform wrongful conduct.

34. Commonality and Predominance: There are many questions of law and fact common to the claims of Plaintiff and the Classes, and those questions predominate over any questions that may affect individual members of the Classes. Common questions for the Classes include, but are not necessarily limited to the following:

No Consent Class:

- a. How B2B Industrial gathered, compiled, or obtained the fax numbers of Plaintiff and the No Consent Class;
- b. Whether Defendant's faxes advertised the commercial availability or quality of property, goods, or services;
- c. Whether B2B Industrial sent the fax advertisements without first obtaining Plaintiff and the No Consent Class's prior express consent to do so;

- d. Whether B2B Industrial sent the fax advertisements without first obtaining Plaintiff and the No Consent Class's prior permission or invitation to do so; and
- e. Whether Defendant's conduct was willful such that Plaintiff and the No Consent Class are entitled to treble damages.

Opt-Out Class:

- a. Whether Defendant's faxes advertised the commercial availability or quality of property, goods, or services;
- b. Whether Defendant's faxes complied with the opt-out notice requirements of 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(C)(iii), and the regulations promulgated thereunder; and
- c. Whether Defendant's conduct was willful such that Plaintiff and the Opt-Out Class are entitled to treble damages.

35. Adequate Representation: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately represent and protect the interests of the Classes and has retained counsel competent and experienced in complex class actions. Plaintiff has no interest antagonistic to those of the Classes, and B2B Industrial has no defenses unique to Plaintiff.

36. Policies Generally Applicable to the Classes: This class action is appropriate for certification because Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Classes as wholes, thereby requiring the Court's imposition of uniform relief to ensure compatible standards of conduct toward the members of the Classes and making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the Classes as a whole. Defendant's practices challenged herein apply to and affect the members of the Classes uniformly, and Plaintiff's challenge of those practices hinges on Defendant's conduct with respect to the Classes as wholes, not on facts or law applicable only to Plaintiff.

37. Superiority: This case is also appropriate for class certification because class proceedings are superior to all other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy given that joinder of all parties is impracticable. The damages suffered by the individual members of the Classes will likely be relatively small, especially given the burden and expense of individual prosecution of the complex litigation necessitated by Defendant's actions. Thus, it would be virtually impossible for the individual members of the Classes to obtain effective relief from Defendant's misconduct. Even if members of the Classes could sustain such individual litigation, it would still not be preferable to a class action, because individual litigation would increase the delay and expense to all parties due to the complex legal and factual controversies presented in this case. By contrast, a class action presents far fewer management difficulties and provides the benefits of single adjudication, economy of scale, and comprehensive supervision by a single court. Economies of time, effort, and expense will be fostered and uniformity of decisions ensured.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of 47 U.S.C. § 227
(On Behalf of Plaintiff and the No Consent Class)

38. Plaintiff incorporates the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.
39. The JFPA makes it unlawful for any person to "use any telephone facsimile machine, computer or other device to send, to a telephone facsimile machine, an unsolicited advertisement. . ." 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(C).
40. The JFPA defines "unsolicited advertisement" as "any material advertising the commercial availability or quality of any property, goods, or services which is transmitted to any person without that person's prior express invitation or permission, in writing or otherwise." 47 U.S.C. § 227(a)(5).

41. The faxes sent by B2B Industrial advertised the commercial availability and quality of its goods and services and were commercial in nature. Therefore, Defendant's faxes are advertisements under the JFPA.

42. B2B Industrial sent the facsimile advertisements at issue to Plaintiff and members of the No Consent Class without their prior express invitation or consent, and despite the lack of any prior business relationship between it and members of the No Consent Class.

43. By sending the unsolicited advertisement faxes at issue to Plaintiff and members of the No Consent Class without their prior express consent, B2B Industrial violated 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(C).

44. As a result of Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff and members of the No Consent Class suffered actual damages, including the conversion or loss of paper and toner consumed in the printing of the faxes, the loss of use of the recipients' fax machines during the time required to receive, review and route the unauthorized faxes, as well as increased labor expenses.

45. Plaintiff and the No Consent Class are therefore entitled to a minimum of $500 in damages for each violation under 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(B). To the extent Defendant's misconduct is determined to be willful, the Court should treble the amount of statutory damages under 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3). The standard for finding willful intent for treble damages "does not require any malicious or wanton conduct, but rather is satisfied by merely 'knowing' conduct." Alea London Ltd. v. Am. Home Servs., Inc., 638 F.3d 768, 776 (11 Cir. 2011).

46. Additionally, as a result of Defendant's unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and the other members of the No Consent Class are entitled to an injunction under 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(A), to ensure that Defendant's violations of the JFPA do not continue into the future.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of 47 U.S.C. § 227

(On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Opt-Out Class)

47. Plaintiff incorporates the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth herein.

48. The JFPA mandates that senders of faxed advertisements place a clear and conspicuous notice on the first page of the transmission that contains information regarding a recipient's right to not receive faxed advertisements, as well as instructions on how to opt out of future transmissions. See 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(2)(D); 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(a)(4)(iii).

49. The faxes sent by B2B Industrial advertised the commercial availability and quality of its goods and services and were commercial in nature. Therefore, Defendant's faxes are advertisements under the JFPA.

50. B2B Industrial sent facsimile advertisements to Plaintiff and the Opt-Out Class that failed to contain the requisite opt-out notices. Specifically, the faxes failed to contain language that: (i) informed fax recipients of their legal right to opt out of receiving future facsimile advertisements; (ii) identified a facsimile number for fax recipients to transmit their opt-out requests to B2B Industrial; and (iii) informed recipients of Defendant's own obligation to comply with opt-out requests within a reasonable time.

51. Defendant's failure to include the opt-out notice information required by the JFPA deprived Plaintiff and members of the Opt-Out Class of the ability to make informed decisions with respect to their legal right to not receive faxed advertisements and denied them of the information necessary to opt out of receiving future fax advertisements.

52. By sending the advertisement faxes at issue to Plaintiff and members of the Opt-Out Class without the opt-out information required by the JFPA, B2B Industrial violated 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(C) and 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(a)(4).

53. Plaintiff and the Opt-Out Class are therefore entitled to a minimum of $500 in damages for each violation under 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(B). To the extent Defendant's misconduct is determined to be willful, the Court should treble the amount of statutory damages under 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3). The standard for finding willful intent for treble damages "does not require any malicious or wanton conduct, but rather is satisfied by merely 'knowing' conduct."

Alea London Ltd. v. Am. Home Servs., Inc., 638 F.3d 768, 776 (11 Cir. 2011).

54. Additionally, as a result of Defendant's unlawful conduct, Plaintiff and the other members of the Opt-Out Class are entitled to an injunction under 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(A), to ensure that Defendant's violations of the JFPA do not continue into the future.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff PT Metals on behalf of itself and the Classes, prays for the following relief:

1. An order certifying the Classes as defined above, appointing PT Metals as the representative of the Classes, and appointing its counsel as Class Counsel;
2. An order declaring that Defendant's actions, as set out above, violate the JFPA;
3. An order declaring that Defendant's faxes constitute unsolicited advertisements, and that B2B Industrial sent the faxes without first obtaining prior express invitation, permission or consent of the recipients, and enjoining B2B Industrial from further violations, and otherwise protecting the interests of the Classes;
4. An award of actual and statutory damages;
5. An award of pre-judgment interest;
6. An award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and
7. Such further and other relief the Court deems reasonable and just.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff requests a trial by jury of all claims that can be so tried.

Respectfully submitted,
